Special Issue
World Summit on Ancient Microscopic Fossils

Guest Editors:
J. William Schopf and David J. Bottjer

Preface
J.W. Schopf and D.J. Bottjer 1

History of the science
The hunt for Precambrian fossils: An abbreviated genealogy of the science
J.W. Schopf 4

Advanced techniques
Modern analogues and the early history of microbial life
B.P. Burns, R. Anitori, P. Butterworth, R. Henneberger, F. Goh, M.A. Allen, R. Ibañez-Peral, P.L. Bergquist, M.R. Walter and B.A. Neilan 10

Micro-FTIR spectroscopic signatures of Bacterial lipids in Proterozoic microfossils
M. Igisu, Y. Ueno, M. Shimojima, S. Nakashima, S.M. Awramik, H. Ohta and S. Maruyama 19

Ultrastructure of cell walls in ancient microfossils as a proxy to their biological affinities
M. Moczydłowska and S. Willman 27

Confocal laser scanning microscopy and Raman imagery of ancient microscopic fossils
J.W. Schopf and A.B. Kudryavtsev 39

Archean microscopic fossils
Taxonomy and biogenicity of Archaean spheroidal microfossils (ca. 3.0 Ga) from the Mount Goldsworthy–Mount Grant area in the northeastern Pilbara Craton, Western Australia
K. Sugitani, K. Grey, T. Nagaoka, K. Mimura and M.R. Walter 50

Palynology of Archean microfossils (c. 3.0 Ga) from the Mount Grant area, Pilbara Craton, Western Australia: Further evidence of biogenicity
K. Grey and K. Sugitani 60

NanoSIMS: Insights to biogenicity and syngeneity of Archaean carbonaceous structures
D.Z. Oehler, F. Robert, M.R. Walter, K. Sugitani, A. Allwood, A. Meibom, S. Mostefaoui, M. Selo, A. Thomen and E.K. Gibson 70

Mass occurrence of benthic coccoid cyanobacteria and their role in the production of Neoarchean carbonates of South Africa
J. Kazmierczak, W. Altermann, B. Kremer, S. Kempe and P.G. Eriksson 79

pre-Ediacaran Proterozoic fossils
Evidence for eukaryotic diversification in the ~1800 million-year-old Changzhougou Formation, North China
D.M. Lamb, S.M. Awramik, D.J. Chapman and S. Zhu 93

Taxonomy and affinity of Early Mesoproterozoic megascopic helically coiled and related fossils from the Rohtas Formation, the Vindhyan Supergroup, India
M. Sharma and Y. Shukla 105

On the affinity of Chuaria–Tawuia complex: A multidisciplinary study
M. Sharma, S. Mishra, S. Dutta, S. Banerjee and Y. Shukla 123

Tappania-bearing association of the Siberian platform: Biodiversity, stratigraphic position and geochronological constraints
K. Nagovitsin 137

Mesoproterozoic Lakhanda Lagerstätte, Siberia: Paleoecology and taphonomy of the microbiota
V.N. Podkovyrov 146

New insights into the nature of the Late Riphean Eosolenides
T.N. German and V.N. Podkovyrov 154

Ediacaran period

Neoproterozoic microfossils from the margin of the East European Platform and the search for a biostratigraphic model of lower Ediacaran rocks
N.G. Vorob'eva, V.N. Sergeev and A.H. Knoll 163

Quantitative evaluation of the biostratigraphic distribution of acanthomorphic acritarchs in the Ediacaran Doushantuo Formation in the Yangtze Gorges area, South China
K.A. McFadden, S. Xiao, C. Zhou and M. Kowalewski 170

Phase contrast synchrotron X-ray microtomography of Ediacaran (Doushantuo) metazoan microfossils: Phylogenetic diversity and evolutionary implications
J.-Y. Chen, D.J. Bottjer, E.H. Davidson, G. Li, F. Gao, R.A. Cameron, M.G. Hadfield, D.-C. Xian, P. Tafforeau, Q.-J. Jia, H. Sugiyama and R. Tang 191

Summary overviews

Modes of pre-Ediacaran multicellularity
N.J. Butterfield 201

The distribution of microfossil assemblages in Proterozoic rocks
V.N. Sergeev 212
